1. GENERAL

- a. The purpose of exit clearance processing is to ensure that the Agency's obligations to the departing individual and the individual's obligations to the Agency are properly discharged. Before individuals separate from the Agency or depart on extended leave of 60 calendar days or more, they are required to return or account for Government property issued to them and Agency or other Government records which are in their possession; arrange for settlement of any indebtedness to the Agency; be informed of any benefits (hospitalization, life insurance, accrued annual leave, etc.) to which entitled; and be briefed regarding cover, security, and special clearances held. In order that these obligations may be discharged in a timely and uniform manner, individuals must give notice of their intended separation or obtain approval for extended leave as soon as practical, but at least two weeks in advance of their last workday. Failure to give adequate notice may delay final settlement of pay, leave, and retirement accounts for an extended period of time after departure.
- b. This handbook applies to staff personnel, Type I contract employees, and civilian and military personnel detailed to the Agency whose exit processing is handled in headquarters.
